ORDER

THIS MATTER came before the court upon the motion of the government filed pursuant to Rule 35, Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, to reduce defendant's sentence. On October 8, 2008, the court heard oral arguments and issued its decision from the bench.

For the reasons stated from the bench, the government's Motion to Reduce Sentence is ALLOWED and the sentence of incarceration is reduced from 21 months of incarceration to time served, followed by three years of supervised release, with a special condition of supervised release being the service of five months of community confinement, with all other terms of the sentence remaining in full force and effect.
